You are about to purchase a product that is not simple and may be difficult to understand.

What is the product?

Type Debt instrument in bearer form, evidenced in the form of uncertificated book-entry securities, governed by Swiss law.

Objectives The objective of this product is to provide you with the possibility of receiving an enhanced return in exchange for taking the risk of a loss of some or all of your investment. The product is a complex financial instrument linked to one Underlying (Allianz SE). It has a fixed term and will be due on the Maturity Date.

1. If the Observation Price of the Underlying is always above the Barrier during the Observation Period, you will receive a cash amount on the Maturity Date. The cash amount will equal the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date multiplied by the Ratio, but is at least equal to the Bonus Amount and shall not exceed the Maximum Amount.
2. If the Observation Price of the Underlying is equal to or below the Barrier at least once during the Observation Period, you aren't entitled to the Bonus Amount any more. Instead, there are two possibilities of redemption on the Maturity Date:
 - a) If the Reference Price of the Underlying is equal to or higher than the Cap on the Valuation Date, you will receive payment of the Maximum Amount.
 - b) Otherwise you will receive the Underlying according to the Ratio.

You will receive such Underlying only in integral numbers. In addition, you will receive a compensation payment equal to the fractional number of the Ratio, multiplied by the Reference Price of the Underlying. You will make a loss if the sum of the value of the delivered Underlyings on the Maturity Date and the compensation payment is below the amount you invested.

You are not entitled to receive any dividend from an Underlying and you have no right to any further entitlement resulting from any such underlying (e.g. voting rights).

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product until 17 February 2020. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because the Issuer and the Guarantor are not able to pay you. We have classified this product as 3 out of 7, which is a medium-low risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-low level, and poor market conditions are very unlikely to impact the capacity of the Issuer and the Guarantor to pay you. Be aware of currency risk if your reference currency differs from the Product Currency. You will receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above. In the case of the physical delivery of the Underlying, price losses may arise even after the Valuation Date until the Underlying is credited to your securities account. This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment. If the Issuer and the Guarantor are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

Performance Scenarios

Market developments in the future cannot be accurately predicted. The scenarios shown are only an indication of some of the possible outcomes based on recent returns. Actual returns could be lower.

This table shows the money you could get back over the next 6 months, under different scenarios, assuming that you invest EUR 10'000. The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform. The recommended holding period for this product is less than one year. The figures are not calculated per year, but for the recommended holding period. Figures in this section and "What are the costs?" are not comparable with figures on products with a different recommended holding period. The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies, and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the product. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where the Issuer and the Guarantor are not able to pay you. The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What happens if Vontobel Financial Products Ltd. is unable to pay out?

You are exposed to the risk that the Issuer and the Guarantor might be unable to fulfil their obligations in respect of the product and the guarantee – e.g. in the event of insolvency (inability to pay / over-indebtedness) or an administrative order of resolution measures. In case of a crisis of the Guarantor such an order can also be issued by a resolution authority in the run-up of an insolvency proceeding. Thereby the resolution authority has extensive intervention powers. Among other things, it can reduce rights of the investors to zero, terminate the guarantee or convert it into shares of the Guarantor and suspend rights of the investors.

A total loss of your capital invested is possible. The product is a debt instrument and as such is not covered by any deposit protection scheme.
