Tax treatment in Switzerland

| Income Tax | This product is a tracker certificate on a Dynamic Basket which qualifies for tax purposes as an "instrument of collective investment schemes". The investment income is subject to income tax so far as it is not declared (tax-free) capital gains. Each year the Calculation Agent will submit the annual accounts for the product, required for tax purposes, to the FTA. In the case that is not possible for the Calculation Agent to submit to the FTA the mentioned financial statements, taxation will be discretionary and based upon a fair market yield on the product value per closing date. |
| Swiss Withholding Tax | No Swiss withholding tax. Secondary market transactions are not subject to the Swiss turnover tax. |
| General Information | The taxation mentioned is a non-binding and non-exhaustive summary of the applicable treatment of Swiss-domiciled private investors for tax purposes. The investor's specific circumstances, however, are not taken into account. We point out that Swiss and/or foreign tax law or the authoritative practice of Swiss and/or foreign tax authorities can change at any time or specify further tax or charge liabilities (possibly even with retrospective effect). Potential investors should have the tax effects of the purchase, holding, sale or repayment of this product examined by their own tax adviser - especially with respect to the effects of taxation under another jurisdiction. |
Description of the Underlying

Vontobel Equity Research Top Swiss Selection of the Year Basket

The Underlying is a Dynamic Basket of Bank Vontobel AG, known as Vontobel Equity Research Top Swiss Selection of the Year Basket. The Basket aims to track the performance of Swiss equities in the Vontobel Research Universe that are rated “Hold” or “Buy” by Vontobel analysts.

Investment Universe

The Investment Universe from which the equities were selected comprises exclusively the Vontobel Research Universe (approximately 130 securities) and includes equities from the Swiss Market Index (SMI®), Swiss Performance Index (SPI®) and Swiss Leader Index (SLI®) Universum.

The equities must meet the following liquidity criteria: An average daily trading volume of more than CHF 2 million over the last 6 months; a security that is already in the Basket is only removed from the Basket (in the case of rebalancing) if the average daily trading volume over the last 6 months is less than CHF 1.5 million.

The Paying, Exercise and Calculation Agent is responsible for compiling and monitoring compliance with the criteria of the Investment Universe.

Securities Selection and Rebalancing

In December each year, the Research Swiss Equities of Bank Vontobel select one or two attractive equities from the relevant sector. The securities have at least a “Hold” rating at that time. Bank Vontobel’s Head Research Swiss Equities selects ten equities from this pre-selection for the Basket. If the rating of a security falls to “sell”, the security is removed from the Basket and the resulting cash position is distributed among the existing Basket members.

If the rating of a security is changed by Vontobel Research, which results in a change in the Basket composition in accordance with the above rules, after confirmation by Research Swiss Equities the Calculation Agent changes the Basket composition accordingly (Rebalancing). The Calculation Agent will rebalance within a maximum of 5 trading days from the date of the rating change (inclusive) (rebalancing period). The Calculation Agent shall endeavour to complete the change in the composition as soon as possible within the rebalancing period.

Rebalancing is applied to the entire Basket, i.e. the weighting of all selected securities is first recalculated on the basis of the above criteria on the day of the rating change. During the rebalancing period, the Calculation Agent then determines the prices of the securities at its reasonable discretion (9-5-1) in order to determine the new composition of the Basket on the basis of these prices and taking into account the new weightings and the last Valuation Price price of the Basket.

The Calculation Agent shall base this price determination, taking into account the available liquidity and safeguarding the interests of investors and other market participants, on the prices determined on the stock exchanges relevant to the respective securities. If a relevant exchange is closed on an exchange day during the rebalancing period, the rebalancing period shall be extended accordingly.

Weighting

Depending on the index membership, a selected security is assigned to one of the following 3 weighting classes:

- SMI® (SMI™): 9x
- Swiss Leader Index (SLI™): 5x
- Swiss Performance Index (SPI™): 1x

There is no limit to the maximum weighting of individual securities in the Basket.

Extraordinary adjustments

The issuer reserves the right to make adjustments to the Basket composition in accordance with market standards in order to safeguard interests if events arise or are announced which affect individual or several stocks in the Basket, i.e. mergers, acquisitions, restrictions on tradability or the introduction of taxes (list not exhaustive).

Valuation Price of the Basket

As a rule, the Basket’s Valuation Price corresponds to the sum of the Basket components closing prices determined by the calculation agent at the relevant stock exchanges on the authoritative valuation date, taking into account the relevant weighting in the Basket and converted to the Reference Currency where applicable. If, however, the Calculation Agent believes that the trading volumes determined or expected on the stock exchange are insufficient, it shall instead be entitled to use a price established at its discretion in deviation from the closing price for the calculation of the Basket’s Valuation Price.

If a stock exchange is closed on the authoritative valuation date due to a public holiday, the valuation for the shares traded on the relevant stock exchange shall be put back to the following trading day.
Prospects of Profit and Losses

These products offer you the opportunity to participate in an underlying instrument's performance. The risks involved with this product basically correspond to those of a direct investment in the Underlying. This consists of a share basket whose components come from the defined Investment Universe. It should be noted that the shares comprising the Basket are reselected. The Issuer assumes no guarantee for the success of the implemented investment model or for a specific performance of the resulting Basket and the Dynamic Tracker Certificate based on it.

The value of these Certificates during their term is significantly influenced by the price performance of the Underlying. A loss is incurred if the sale or redemption of the Tracker Certificate occurs at a lower price than the purchase price paid. Such a loss scenario can arise if the underlying instrument develops negatively. As a result, the price of the Tracker Certificate may be significantly lower than the issue price/purchase price during the term of the Certificate, resulting in a loss of a corresponding amount. These Certificates have no capital protection. A loss up to the invested capital can therefore not be excluded.

Assumptions and limitations in preparing the market scenarios

The following market scenarios should afford the investor a simplified way of making an assessment of the significant factors that influence the investment performance of the certificate. For a precise analysis of the profit and loss scenarios, reference must be made to the formulas and definitions set out in this termsheet, (e.g. for "reimbursement"), because these scenarios have been deliberately simplified in order to make them better understandable. With the exception of those certificates for which one of the following factors is defined as the underlying (e.g. a currency certificate or a certificate of interest), the impact of these risk factors will be excluded from the simplified presentation of the scenario:

- Foreign currency risks
- Interest rate risks
- Volatility risks
- Issuer risk
- Reference bond ("default or redemption event")
- Fees and costs both stemming from the certificate and for the acquisition and holding of the certificate

Market scenarios

Maximum gain: Underlying performance
Maximum loss: 100%

Positive scenario:
Indicative performance of the certificate: 0% to underlying performance
Necessary market performance of underlying:
- Proportional participation in positive market performance

Break even:
Indicative performance of the certificate: 0%
Necessary market performance of underlying:
- Closing price of underlying = reference price level at the time of the investment

Negative scenario:
Indicative performance of the certificate: Loss of up to 100% possible
Necessary market performance of underlying:
- Closing price of underlying is lower than the reference price level at the time of the investment

SIGNIFICANT RISKS FOR INVESTORS

Currency risks

If the underlying or underlying(s) is/are denominated in a currency other than the product's reference currency, investors should bear in mind that this may involve risks due to fluctuating exchange rates and that the risk of loss does not only depend on the performance of the underlying(s) but also on any unfavourable performance of the other currency or currencies. This does not apply for currency-hedged products (quanto structure).

Market risks

The general market performance of securities is dependent in particular on the development of the capital markets which, for their part, are influenced by the general global economic situation as well as by the economic and political framework conditions in the respective countries (so-called market risk). Changes to market prices such as interest rates, commodity prices or corresponding volatilities may have a negative effect on the valuation of the underlying(s) or the structured product. There is also the risk of market disruptions (such as trading or stock market interruptions or discontinuation of trading) or other unforeseeable occurrences concerning the respective underlying(s) or their stock exchanges or markets taking place during the term or upon maturity of the structured products. Such occurrences can have an effect on the time of redemption and/or on the value of the structured products.

In the event of trading restrictions, sanctions and similar occurrences, the issuer is entitled, for the purpose of calculating the value of the structured product, to include at its own discretion the underlying instruments at their most recently traded price, at a fair value to be established at its sole discretion or indeed as worthless, and/or additionally to suspend pricing in the structured product or liquidate the structured product prematurely.

Secondary market risks

Under normal market conditions, the issuer or the lead manager intend to post bid- and ask-prices on a regular basis. However, neither the issuer nor the lead manager is under any obligation with respect to investors to provide such bid- and ask-prices for specific order or securities volumes, and there is no guarantee of a specific liquidity or of a specific spread (i.e. the difference between bid- and ask-prices), for which reason investors cannot rely on being able to purchase or sell the structured products on a specific date or at a specific price.
The value of structured products may depend not only on the performance of the underlying(s), but also on the creditworthiness of the guarantor, which may change during the term of the structured product. The investor is exposed to the risk of default of the guarantor. For further information on the rating of Bank Vontobel AG or Vontobel Holding AG, please see the issuance program.

Issuer risk
The value of structured products may depend not only on the performance of the underlying(s), but also on the creditworthiness of the Issuer, which may change during the term of the structured product. The investor is exposed to the risk of default of the Issuer. For further information on the rating of Bank Vontobel AG, please see the Program.

Possible Conflicts of Interest
There may be conflicts of interest at the Vontobel Group companies that could have a negative impact on the value of the Structured Products. For example, Vontobel Group companies may enter into or participate in trading and hedging transactions relating to the Underlying. They may also perform other functions relating to the Structured Products (e.g. as Calculation Agent, Index Sponsor and/or Market Maker) which enable them to determine the composition of the Underlying or calculate its value. Vontobel Group companies may also receive non-public information relating to the Underlying. It should also be noted that the payment of distribution fees and other commissions to financial intermediaries could result in conflicts of interest to the detriment of the investor, as this could create an incentive for the financial intermediary to distribute products with a higher commission preferentially to its clients. As market maker, Vontobel Group companies can determine the price of Structured Products themselves to a large extent and determine it on the basis of various factors and earnings considerations.

Please also note the further, detailed description of potential conflicts of interest and their impact on the value of the Structured Products as contained in the Issuance Program.
